So I said I wasn't going to be doing another chapter, but I was bored with extra free time so decided I'd just pull another one out. With these chapters being so short it's not much of a problem. Still, I'd like for a group with actual experience to take the project up. Then again, I've been lazy trying to advertise this, I don't even think it's up on manga hosting sites yet. Regardless, I really don't plan on doing chapter 3, but who knows. This chapter in particular had a line or two I wasn't 100% sure of the exact meaning, but I think I worded it fairly well.

Oh, and I hope you didn't pay for this free translation.
